

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Their continued, deliberate misuse of public property argues not only against media consolidation, but their unsuitability to continue to operate on our airwaves.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Now we can see that the only interests Sinclair Broadcasting serves are only those of the management, which also exclude the best interests of the shareholders .

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, take their licenses to broadcast away, and also take back the analog spectrum as well. Thank you.
